

Christian Initiation

Christian Initiation is the process of welcoming individuals into the Catholic Church, the family of God. The journey begins in response to God's call to conversion and having grown in faith through engagement with scripture, prayer and the Church community, leads to Baptism. In baptism we renounce evil, receive forgiveness of all sins and so the gift of new life.

rClyp – Rite of Christian Initiation of Young People

Why is it needed and who is it for?

The Come and See resource has been created in response to the growing number of young people seeking to explore their faith and relationship with God; possibly with a view to being welcomed into the Church.

These include:

- ✚ Teenagers who, due to circumstances have not received the Sacraments with peers
- ✚ Students in Catholic Schools who are curious about Jesus & the Catholic Church
- ✚ Young people with eternal questions human beings have always asked: who; when; where; what; why; how?
- ✚ Young people with questions on 'our' and 'their' stewardship of the earth
- ✚ Young people with questions about the Church today
- ✚ Young people with questions about why they are Catholic
- ✚ Young people seeking to make connections with their peers
- ✚ Young people introduced to the Catholic Church, may be through family or friends – but with questions?
  - ✚ Young people committed to their faith, who wish to accompany others on their journey

The Invitation to Come and See

The Year of Youth, celebrated by the Australian Church in 2018, prompted an initial exploration of a process to support young people who wish to Come and See what Jesus and the Christian faith might bring to their lives. The Come and See resource is the culmination of three years' work.

The Come and See, rClyp, materials focus on three different development stages:

- 9 -12 young adolescents (resources for 1hr)
  - 12 -15 young teens (resources for 1.5hrs)
  - 15 -18 older teens and young adults (resources for 2hrs)
- For each of the four stages of the initiation journey Catechist notes and accompanying materials are provided. An overview of these can be found in the framework given on pages 8 -12.
  - The content elements are similar for all age groups.
  - Materials and activities are age appropriate, but some can be used across the age groups, tailored to the needs and maturity of the young people.

The Spiritual Journey

Is it different for young people? In a nutshell yes.

Adolescence is a time of questioning, scrutiny and discernment. A stage in life when exploration of spirituality and faith can help individuals make sense of the questions, face up to the doubts and be open to find answers in places they not had not anticipated. By offering positive opportunities for young people to reflect on ways to live in harmony with God, self, others and creation, the Church can help young people explore the meaning of life and faith, in engaging and life-changing ways.

The Come and See resources are designed to assist with that process. Providing a welcoming and supportive environment is crucial for the young minds to be nurtured, and young hearts nourished.

When does the process of rClyp begin?

The process can begin at any time. The length of each stage, and the journey overall is not fixed. Discernment is ongoing, enabling young people and Catechists determine if, and when, individuals are ready to make the commitment to life-long Missionary Discipleship.

Parish Based rClyp

The witness of committed Christians is essential in the formation of missionary disciples. It is therefore important that faith filled young people accompany the inquirers on the journey. Contact with the wider parish community must also take place throughout the process. This can be done in a variety of ways, involving different people, events and experiences.

Affirmation of the need for Parish involvement

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults #4 states

The initiation of catechumens is a gradual process that takes place within the community of the faithful. By joining the catechumens in reflecting on the value of the paschal mystery and by renewing their own conversion, the faithful provide an example that will help the catechumens to obey the Holy Spirit more generously.

The General Directory for Catechesis 257-258 states

The parish is, without doubt, the most important locus in which the Christian community is formed and expressed. This is called to be a fraternal and welcoming family where Christians become aware of being the People of God... (Catechesi Tradendae 67b) The parish is also the usual place in which faith is born and in which it grows.

The Sacramental Policy for School-Aged Children in the Archdiocese of Perth reinforces this understanding.

The sacraments take place within the context of a Christian community that we call a parish. In this way, we are welcomed into the much bigger community of the Church...Christian initiation is about becoming a member of the church, the faith community that follows Jesus... Christian initiation involves participation in, and commitment to, the stories, rituals and mission of the faith community.

(Sacramental Policy for School-Aged Children, Archdiocese of Perth. 1, 2.1, 2.4)

The Bishops of WA remain united in the belief that

“It is the parish community that invites and welcomes new members; it is where initiation into the faith is celebrated and nurtured, it is where people learn to live as a community of the faithful.”
(Bishops Mandate, 2009-2015 #79)

In his 2013 apostolic exhortation ‘The Joy of the Gospel,’ Pope Francis assures us that the role of all the baptised is to be missionary disciples.

In virtue of their baptism, all the members of the People of God have become missionary disciples (Mt 28:19)

All the baptized, whatever their position in the Church or their level of instruction in the faith, are agents of evangelization, and it would be insufficient to envisage a plan of evangelization to be carried out by professionals while the rest of the faithful would simply be passive recipients. The new evangelization calls for personal involvement on the part of each of the baptized.

rClyp - The Rite and the Reality

The Second Vatican Council called for the Rite of Baptism for Adults to be revised in a manner closely aligned to the early church practice, and so include:

- Several clear steps, marked by
- Liturgical Rites
- Well suited instruction
- Support within a parish community

The same applies for the process of welcoming young people into the Church. In reality, the young people interested in Sacramental Initiation may not have any genuine link with a parish. For many, the Catholic school is their only experience of Church. Creating a bridge between school and parish communities is therefore essential if nurture of a young persons' faith is to happen beyond their school days.

Responsibility for this nurture does not rely solely on the Catechists. Each member of the parish community also has a part to play. As the Rite clearly expresses:

"...the people of God, as represented by the local Church, should understand and show by their concern that the initiation of adults is the responsibility of all the Baptised.

In the various circumstances of daily life, even as in the apostolate, all the followers of Christ have the obligation of spreading the faith according to their abilities." RCIA #9:

Of course, not everyone can be a Catechist, or accompanier. However, every person can offer a smile of welcome, and pray for the young people throughout their journey.

Who is involved?

- The Spiritual Director is always the Parish Priest. His position and contact with parishioners can help to identify parishioners able to support the process of rClyp.

It is essential that the Parish Priest establishes a relationship with the young enquirers, since he is the face of the parish the person who will celebrate the Rites with them, along the way to the Sacraments of Initiation.

Others who might be involved include:

- Parishioners: as Catechists, as people who befriend, provide hospitality to the young people and support to the rClyp process; living examples of the Body of Christ.
- Secondary School staff: who might initially encourage the young people to embark on the journey, then provide moral support along the way.
- Young peers: to accompany and share their own faith experiences with the young people throughout the rClyp journey. They demonstrate lived faith and true discipleship.

rClyp - a four stage process

The process of welcoming young people into the Church involves the same four stages as for adult inquirers.

Evangelisation 'Inquirer'

- Desires to know God more
- Is open to engaging with God through prayer & Scripture
- Is open to developing a sense of service
- Is open to belonging to community

Formation & Catechesis 'Catechumen & Candidate'

- Deepening their relationship with God and
- Becoming more comfortable with prayer, liturgy
- Growing more familiar with the Gospel message
- Appreciating the value of Church Community

Prayer & Discernment 'Elect'

- Discernment of spiritual formation
- Prayerful Reflection
- Deepening comfort & engagement in the liturgical life of the parish
- Strengthening practice of living out the Christian faith in daily life

Ongoing Formation 'Living Disciple'

- Ongoing deepening of relationship with God
- Ongoing growth and familiarity with the Gospels
- Comfortable deepening practice of prayer and liturgical worship
- Belonging and acceptance in Parish Community
- Ongoing formation in mission and life of discipleship

SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION

PRAYER & DISCERNMENT

LIVING The FAITH

GROWING in UNDERSTANDING of the CATHOLIC FAITH

INQUIRY

The rClyp Come and See Resource

In keeping with the recommended Archdiocesan model of welcoming new members into the Catholic faith, the Come and See materials include three forms of catechesis: Liturgical, Lectionary and Catholic tenets of faith. In the preparation and celebration of the Rite permitted adaptations have been incorporated. The three forms of catechesis offer a breadth of Catholic faith, tradition and understanding.

1. Lectionary Catechesis breaks open Scripture to develop understanding of Jesus' life, teaching and example.
2. Liturgical Catechesis shares the rites, worship and prayer life of the Church, strengthening the relationship of those in the rClyp process with Jesus.
3. Catholic Tenets of Faith unpack the Church's teaching, using faith and reason to engage young people with the Catholic faith and practices.

The Christian faith calls us into a real and living relationship with Jesus Christ.

rClyp introduces young people to:

- 1 Being deepening their personal relationship with God: Father, Son and the Holy Spirit.
- 2 Story becoming familiar with Jesus' life, teaching and example through the Gospels and their own story.
- 3 Liturgy developing and deepening their relationship with Jesus through prayer and worship.
- 4 Belonging growing in their faith practice through a sense of acceptance by and welcome into a Parish Community of faith.
- 5 Service understanding the practice of lived discipleship and mission as integral to the Christian calling.

The rClyp Journey into Faith

Getting Started

Use the Come and See resource to respond to local need, or simply offer young people the opportunity to explore the Christian faith, bearing in mind the importance of

- Liaison with clergy – ideally parishes will work as a cluster to identify
  - Catechists and young adults willing to accompany young people on their faith journey
  - Preparation and training to understand the rClyp process and becoming familiar with the Come and See Materials
  - A recruitment strategy: within the parishes, local high schools, both Government and Catholic, to invite participation
- Contact the OCI for assistance with any of the above.

Key Components of rClyp Gatherings

- ✓ Hospitality: a warm welcome to all, with refreshments offered
- ✓ Introduction to the session focus and settling in activity
- ✓ Prayer: Opening, closing or interspersed
- ✓ Visual prayer focus linked to the season / focus of the day
- ✓ Activities and conversations linked to the content focus
- ✓ Scripture readings linked to the content and / or Sunday Liturgy
- ✓ Social time and refreshments to end – this is really important!

NB: The young people are not preparing for an exam. Yes, there needs to be input and learning, but that happens in many different ways. Meaningful conversations should not be interrupted to ensure content is covered. Diversions occur as questions about faith, conversations around current life or moral issues naturally arise. Missed input can be incorporated into other linked steps along the way.

A Process of Participation

- All group members are encouraged to participate to the best of their ability.
- Catechists must take care to prevent domination of the conversation by one person, or the exclusion of any individual. They also need to share appropriately too.
- Open-ended questions are to be encouraged and responses teased out together.
- Where a question cannot be fully answered, the individual is to be reassured that the answer will be followed up next session.

Framework of steps for each of the four stages of the rClyp process

Come and See offers a scope and sequence framework of topics and age appropriate resources to use with those journeying into the Catholic faith. The aim is to support parishioners involved in the evangelical ministry of Christian Initiation. It offers clear directions regarding content and process, along with great flexibility. Accommodating the needs of the young people with whom the beauty and richness of the Catholic faith is being shared is essential for the creation of life-long missionary disciples.

Appreciating the need to constantly turn back to God, to own the statements contained in the creed and call to live by the Lord's Prayer are central to this time of spiritual growth.		Having been welcomed into the Church the young people deepen their understanding of how to live the faith. Learning from the experiences of the disciples they discover their role in God's plan.

Framework for rClyp – Older Teens / Young Adults, 15-18

Making the most of this rClyp Framework and the Come and See Resources:

This rClyp Framework and accompanying materials are designed for use with groups.

They are both comprehensive and flexible, most are also suitable for use with adults.

Each of the four stages of the rClyp process are necessary. Though the steps are presented sequentially, not all may need to be used. The length of the process, number of steps and order in which they are used will vary, according to the needs and circumstances of each group.

Come and See: Most of the rClyp materials for the 15 -18 age group come under the umbrella of the Come and See resource produced through the Perth Office of Christian Initiation. Drawn from a wealth of reliable sources the materials are designed to facilitate exploration, reflection and conversation that will open minds and hearts to the Spirit of God within them, to the Word of God in the scriptures and to the presence of God around them. A number of the video clips interspersed throughout Come and See are from Chosen; a faith development resource produced by Ascension Press in the USA.

Inquiry Stage: Stage one is the invitation to Come and See. The materials draw heavily on the work of Fr Elio Capra SDB, in his book of the same name. Fr Elio is renown across Australia and beyond for his work in Faith Development, in particular, the RCIA.

The Come and See Inquiry steps provide a gentle introduction to the Christian faith and Catholic context. The process is designed to foster relationship building and assist Catechists to discover the levels of faith experience and awareness within the group. The review at the end of the Inquiry steps will be helpful in discerning how best to proceed through the next stages of the journey, including which steps or materials might best suit the needs of individuals and group as a whole.

Stages 2 and 3 Combined, the Growing in Faith, Prayer and Discernment stages make up the core of the rClyp process, the meat and the relish in the sandwich, so to speak. Aspects of both are essential to the process, even if every step is not being used. The later steps, especially if outside of the Lenten period, could be beneficially organised as one long or two shorter retreat days, or even a weekend away. For both stages there are a wealth of materials for each step, including some optional prayers and activities.

Post-initiation It is of the greatest importance that the group reconvene after the reception of the Sacraments of Initiation. Yes, this is the climax of the journey, but it certainly is not, and must not, be allowed to become, the end point. The post-initiation, Mystagogia, stage is a time to support the young people to feel truly part of the family of the Church and settle into their role as Missionary Disciples. The six Come and See steps incorporate the post Resurrection experiences of the disciples, whose work we, Jesus disciples today, are called to continue. Even if this period of catechesis is not happening during the Easter season, these materials are still appropriate for use. The rClyp journey concludes with a review, a commissioning, preferably at a parish Sunday Mass, and of course a social celebration, with food.

The review has two purposes. Firstly, to engage the group members in reflection on the mystagoia period and acknowledge the highs and lows of their journey. Having looked back, the young people consider ways they will continue their apprenticeship as missionary disciples and identify help they might need. Secondly, the review provides valuable feedback for Catechists, including ways to improve the rClyp.

Accessing the Resources:

Come and See Samples of resources for each age group are available on the OCI website: www.initiation.perthcatholic.org.au

A flash-driving containing the full set of resources is available to WA parishes, schools and groups at a cost of $15 (while stocks last) and to other agencies or diocese, for $25.

Chosen – the full set of materials can be ordered through Rich Harvest Bookshop. The cost is $300.

Valuable Resources

The Come and See rClyp Resource incorporates materials from a range of sources. The main ones are listed below, along with links to free online resources. All have in common, the aim of initiation, which is conversion of the heart and love of God. Further details of the Key resources and content they cover can be found in the appendices.
